Love and Logicism

“Wise parents know that arguments are not requests to hear parental wisdom. Instead, they are designed to weaken parent’s resolve and get one’s way.” One of the first techniques taught in the Love and Logic© parenting classes is how to neutralize arguing and whining.

*Quote from “Love and Logicisms: Wise Words About Kids” by Jim Fay and Charles Fay

Start the New Year with some New Skills!

Love and Logic© Parenting Classes begin this month. Thanks to the generous contributions from local businesses and organizations, these classes (including meals and childcare!) are offered at no cost!

Classes include watching video clips with entertaining stories and techniques taught by authors Jim and Charles Fay. We also use a workbook for short readings and exercises. You’re sure to look at parenting differently! Join us today!

See the attached flier, or go to www.familiesfirstofpella.org to learn more and register.
