Love and Logicism

Thoughts on Chores...

“Do not pay your kids for completing their chores.” and “When kids say, ‘Mary’s mom doesn’t make her do chores,’ wise parents smile and say, ‘Well that’s really sad for Mary. Aren’t you glad I love you enough to expect more of you?’” Check out the attached article on responsibility.

Prevent the Summer Slide...

Did you know that students who read during the summer gain an average of 1 month of reading proficiency, while those who don’t lose an average of 2-3 months proficiency?!?

(www.booksourcenbanter.com) Make reading a priority this summer! Check out the Pella Public Library’s Summer Reading Program for reading logs, goal setting and prizes.
